

CRAAP Test Assessment (Sarah Blakeslee)

A task sheet for students to work through several times and hopefully then internalise.

Evaluation criteria	Notes
When was this information published or last updated?	Currency:
Is the information current enough for your topic or field?	Currency:
Have there been newer developments that may affect its accuracy?	Currency:
Are the links or references in the content still functional and are they up-to-date?	Currency:
Does the information directly relate to your question or topic?	Relevance:
Who is the intended audience (experts, students, general public)?	Relevance:
Is the depth of information appropriate for your needs (not too basic or too technical)?	Relevance:
Would you be comfortable citing this source in an academic or professional setting?	Relevance:
Who is the author or creator, and what are their credentials?	Authority:
Is the organization or publisher reputable and trustworthy?	Authority:
Can you find more about the author's background and qualifications?	Authority:
Does the author provide contact information or an affiliation?	Authority:
Is the information supported by evidence, data, or credible references?	Accuracy:
Can the facts be verified by other reliable sources?	Accuracy:
Are there spelling, grammar, or typographical errors that affect credibility?	Accuracy:
Is the language objective and free from emotional or misleading tones?	Accuracy:
What is the purpose of the content — to inform, persuade, entertain, or sell?	Purpose:
Is the information presented objectively, or does it show bias?	Purpose:
Are opinions clearly distinguished from facts?	Purpose:
Does the source have a political, ideological, or commercial agenda?	Purpose: